Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

Cures a Prominent Attorney.

M. R. C. PHELPS, the leading pension attorney of Belfast, N. Y., writes: "I was discharged from the army on account of ill health, and suffered from heart trouble ever since. I frequently had fainting and smothering spells. My form was bent as a man of 80. I constantly wore an overcoat, even in summer, for fear of taking cold. I could not attend to my business. My rest was broken by severe pains about the heart and left shoulder. Three years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, notwithstanding I had used so much patent medicine and taken drugs from doctors for years without being helped. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure restored me to health. It is truly a wonderful medicine and it affords me much pleasure to recommend this remedy to everyone."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee. First bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address: DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

ONLY AS AN INCIDENT

Will Mr. McKinley Treat the Maine Disaster.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROGRAMME

No Demand Will Be Made on Spain, but the Findings of the Court [Will Be] Cabled to Madrid—Spanish Flotilla Sails For Porto Rico. Maine's Officers to Return.

Washington, March 25.—The president frankly acknowledged yesterday that he believed the report of the board of inquiry will find that the Maine was blown up from the outside. His programme has been definitely decided. It is his purpose to treat the blowing up of the Maine as an incident. The report of the board will be sent to congress on Monday with a very brief message relating the events leading up to that point and informing congress that the facts contained in the report have been cabled to Madrid to be laid before the Spanish government by Minister Woodford. No demand will be made upon Spain, but the laying of the facts before the Spanish government will be equivalent to calling upon Spain for an explanation and such action as she may deem proper.

It is the purpose of the house leaders to refer the report and message to the committee on foreign affairs without debate and to this purpose it is believed the Democrats of the house have acquiesced, reserving the right to demand action if a report from the committee is too long delayed. Much will then depend upon Spain's response, but there are those close to the president who believe that from the time the report is sent to congress it will drop out as a factor in the situation.

The second part of the president's programme reaches the main question and involves intervention on humanitarian grounds within a week or 10 days after the report of the board goes to congress. It will be intervention to relieve the starvation in Cuba, and upon Spain's acquiescence in or objection to this act will depend peace or war. A prominent member of the house said that in his opinion the next two weeks would determine which it would be.

Such information as exists here leads those close to the president to believe that the Spanish government will go to any length it dares to preserve peace. The queen regent is especially anxious to prevent war, and it is believed the ministry will go just as far as it can without jeopardizing its own existence and the survival of the present Spanish dynasty.

SPANISH FLOTILLA.

News of its Sailing From the Canaries Causes Warlike Preparations. Washington, March 25.—When it became known yesterday that the Spanish flotilla had sailed from the Canaries for Porto Rico it was the signal for the most energetic warlike measures in quick succession. The dispatch to the navy department was immediately laid before the president and an earnest conference was held between him and Secretary Long and Assistant Secretary Roosevelt. The seriousness of the movement was fully considered and the president was advised that naval strategists regarded it as essential that this torpedo fleet should not be allowed to reach western waters. What, if any conclusion, was reached is not known.

Following the flotilla announcement important news followed rapidly. The first was this announcement by Secretary Long, indicating the placing of our squadron and fleet on a war footing. Admiral Sicard has been granted leave, very much to the regret of the navy department, and altogether on account of his health.

Captain Sampson has been made com-

It is a painful sight to see an otherwise robust man, a jimping along on a crutch or cane, a sufferer from rheumatism. Rheumatism is a disease that will never attack a man who keeps his blood pure and rich. There is just one way to do this. That is, to keep the digestion and assimilation perfect and the liver and bowels active. All cases of rheumatism are promptly cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It creates a hearty appetite, corrects all disorders of the digestion, and all weakness of the stomach. It makes the assimilation perfect, the liver active, the blood pure and rich with the life-giving elements of the food, the nerves strong and steady, and it drives all impurities and abnormal acids from the blood. It cures inflammation and dispels pain. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It does not make corruptible people more corrupt. Unlike cod liver oil, it does not build fatty flesh, but tears down the unhealthy, half-dead tissues that constitute corpulence, carries them away and excretes them, replacing them with the firm tissues of health. Thousands have testified to its merits. Sold at all medicine stores.

"I have been afflicted with rheumatism and kidney trouble," writes Mr. C. B. White, of Grove, Georgia Co., Ohio. "I suffered untold pain. I was afraid I would lose my mind. At times was almost entirely helpless. There had not been a night for three years that I could rest in any position. I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I used three bottles of it and am well of both diseases."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

ARRIVED ON TIME LAST NIGHT.

Great Crowds at the Station in Washington to Receive Lieutenant Marix and His Guard—Hurried Into Carriages and Driven to the Ebbitts. Correspondents Baffled.

Washington, March 25.—The report of the naval board of inquiry into the Maine disaster arrived in Washington at 9:35 last night, and this morning Lieutenant Commander Marix delivered the momentous document into the hands of Secretary of the Navy Long. Mr. Long, after a brief conference with the commander, called a carriage and was hastily driven with a guard to the white house, where he turned the report over to the president.

When the train carrying the four naval officers who carried the report from Key West to this city arrived they were hustled at once into a carriage by an attaché of the navy department and driven to the Ebbitt House, where they tried to catch a little much needed sleep and at the same time withstand the crowd of newspaper men who thronged the lobby in hopes of some stray bit of information which had escaped the scrutiny of numerous correspondents along the route.

The party consisted of Lieutenant Commander Marix, Lieutenant John Hood, Lieut. Carl Jung, Passed Assistant Engineer Bowers, A. T. Marix, a nephew of the judge advocate and ship carpenter Helms, of the Maines ill-fated crew. There was an immense crowd waiting at the depot when the train pulled in. The naval contingent was in the last sleeper of the train and deftly avoided the crush of citizens by alighting at the upper end of the platform and going out across tracks. All were thoroughly tired and Commander Marix was asleep in the corner of the seat when the train pulled in and was gently shaken into sensibility by his companions who were on guard.

The party was met at the steps of the car by Lieutenant Ward of the navy department, who was the sole representative of Secretary Long. He informed Commander Marix that the secretary could not receive the report last night and gathering the tired travelers under his protecting wing made for the hack stands through the rapidly thickening crowd which balked of its prey at the gate, had swarmed out over the pavement to get a glimpse at the outside of the much heralded report. Lieutenant Hood, as the most muscular member of the party, carried the bulky document in a white canvas bag slung under his arm. It must have weighed 10 or 20 pounds without its carrying case and portended endless reams of complicated testimony to be digested by the administration before the next step in the progress of the Maine incident can be taken.

That the whole party carrying the report was armed was demonstrated in a rather theatrical way just as they were about to get into the carriage. The crowd closed around the party and jostled them considerably. Some one ran against the end of the mysterious canvas bag in which the report was concealed. Quick as a flash Lieutenant Hood's hand went back to his hip and Lieutenant Jung laid his hand on the butt of a revolver that was sticking from his side pocket. The movements were sufficient to prevent further jostling.

On being driven to the Ebbitt house the whole party retired, first having ordered some light refreshments to their rooms. It was not long until the news of their arrival spread and the lobby was filled with a curious crowd of idlers, while the negro bell boys worked over time carrying up cards from the various correspondents in search of an interview. Young Marix was deputed as a sort of a press committee and met all inquirers with the stereotyped reply of "I don't know," to every question.

CEASE WABBLING.

London Graphic's Criticism on Cuban Situation.

London, March 25.—The Daily Graphic says editorially: "We think it time that Washington ceases wabbling. Weeks ago it was said that the starting of the Spanish torpedo flotilla for the West Indies would compel America to declare war. Today the flotilla is steaming straight for Porto Rico. Meanwhile acute senators in Washington and over-clever journalists in New York are planning ingenious campaigns to fix the odium of declaring war on Spain."

"Surely this is unworthy of the American people. Two clear lines of policy are before President McKinley: Either to co-operate with the Sagasta cabinet in making Cuban home rule a reality or to give Spain peremptory notice to quit."

"To avoid both courses is to turn the terrible Maine disaster into a sort of greivous red herring. If President McKinley does not mean war, let him say so, and the horrors in Cuba will soon be mitigated."

PRAIRIE SCHOONERS.

Emigrants to Minnesota and North Dakota Reviving That Method of Travel.

St. Paul, March 25.—New settlers are reviving the old prairie schooner, and railroad land officials in this city have the names of 300 families, aggregating 1,200 people, who propose this spring to adopt that method of reaching Minnesota and the Dakotas from the older states. Many of them are already on the road. The present movement of settlers is the heaviest for a long time. Over 1,000 people passed through this city yesterday and the day before en route to farms in Minnesota and the Dakotas, and will settle along the line of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern. The largest body of new settlers will be the Dunkards, several thousand of whom expect to join their brethren in North Dakota this year.

FLOOD NEWS.

Loss of Life and Damage to Property in the Ohio Valley.

Cincinnati, March 25.—Reports from northern West Virginia at the sources of the Monongahela bring news of heavy rains and a rapidly rising river. This is an assurance that the Ohio will have a protracted high stage of water.

Interior towns in Ohio that have suffered inundation and damage are finding relief by the recession of the waters. Loss of life is reported at Hamilton, O., where the great Miami swept away two cottages and drowned six inmates, namely: Mrs. Charles Whitman and her three small children and Mr. and Mrs. Springman. The story of loss of life by the railroad wreck near Columbus, Ind., not only lacks confirmation but is positively denied.

Carter, a Graves county murderer, who has served nine years on a life sentence; George M. Huffman, of Garrard county serving eight years for attempted criminal assault, and Talbot Davis, of Pulaski, serving five years for manslaughter. The pardon mill will probably continue in operation through the week.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

Fourteen Hundred Pounds of Explosive Fired by Lightning.

Youngstown, O., March 25.—Fourteen hundred pounds of dynamite stored in a warehouse at Hillsville, 12 miles east of here, were struck by lightning and caused a terrific explosion. Not a vestige of the building is left and many small cottages near by were badly shattered. Five persons, Italians, were more or less seriously injured. The force of the explosion threw many persons out of bed.

Indianapolis, March 25.—Judge Baker rendered a decision late yesterday which makes it impossible for penalties for wasting gas to be collected in the federal court. The decision was entered in two cases in which the state is plaintiff and the Allegheny Oil company defendant. The company was sued by the state for allowing gas to escape from two wells in Delaware county in the course of boring for oil. The company carried the cases to the federal court and Attorney General Ketcham promptly moved to remand. Judge Baker in sustaining the motion, held that the state of Indiana is not a citizen of Indiana, and therefore that the rule of diverse citizenship of the parties, under which jurisdiction was asserted, did not obtain.

Every year California becomes more

this season of year to California is via

the Southern Pacific Company's Sunset

to the sunset limited annex service

now operated between the Crescent City

and the Golden Gate leaving New

Orleans 8:40 p. m. every Tuesday and

Saturday. Via this route one enters

California at its most south eastern

corner, passes through a valley on

each side of which two mountains rear

their snowy peaks. Once through this

gateway the bounties of California are

before you; the thriving farms with

blooming orchards, meadows decked

with scarlet poppies greet the eye in every direction.

POLITICAL BRIEVITIES.

The democrat primary went through

yesterday according to program and the

slate was named as indicated in the

REPUBLICAN and as it has been decreed

from the beginning. Mr. Bauer, how-

ever, came very near winning in spite

of the organized opposition, and except

for the personal opposition of a few of

the ring leaders in the first ward,

would have captured the nomination.

Col. Thurston made a gallant fight

but a hopeless one, as he realized that

the peeve politicians were against

him. He was educated and experienced

in the law before these would-be leaders were born, and no man goes down

before the machine more respected and

with a more loyal personal following

than he.

It was pretty generally believed that

the mature judgment of Dennis Hanlon

and his earnest interest in the upbuild-

ing of the third ward would insure his

nomination. But Mr. Arbuckle needed

an organ and could not afford to see his

personal friend, Charley, go down: so

the vote was passed around and Den-

was slaughtered. Apparently the democratic machine cares little for the citizens living beyond the two railroads in

the third ward. Jim DeGolyer will

look well to their interest in the future

as he has in the past.

There is a very evident regret this

morning among thoughtful democrats

at the result of the contest for marshal.

Mr. Bruning, Mr. Railing and Mr. Riehl

each had a very creditable following of

the best citizenship, but in order to

cater to a certain element, the wise

men in charge set them aside. A few

men can make programs and slates,

but they cannot sit in their soft places

and carry the elections.

Claude Wilson was not treated with

common civility.

George Thompson is slated for street

commissioner. His influence is worth

having in city politics.

Munden's influence is breeding great

politicians rather than great lawyers.

Mr. Arbuckle is his cousin and got his

start there and flocked to himself. Mr.

Staples spent all of his preparatory days

there and was weaned in time to enter

the city campaign. Mr. Wesner, the

man of many titles, is still under tut-

elage there, and what may be developed

out of him, time only can tell. Mr.

Munden is still chasing the nomination

for representative, so that he can have

laws enacted encouraging the growth and reward of politicians.

Charles Burkart, who had the advantage of his opponent by having the support of the candidate for mayor, is

glorifying today because his name is not

"Dennis." By the way Charley does

not claim to be a candidate for council,

but for Alderman in the Third district.

Thus he is putting on "city airs" and

may be expected to have his head

measured for a silk hat before the can-

vas proceeds much farther.

James T. Arbuckle was the most

good-natured man on the grounds yesterday. His step was light, his smile

filled with visions of a great future. He

did not borrow trouble, but patted everybody on the back, and especially

Charley Burkart. He has had his own

way politically; and only today does he

realize what little glory there is in all

that. He kept down all opposing candidates and kept up a show of courage

until all the returns were in and the

total vote was shown to be

small as to foretell his doom to the

election, then he was seen sauntering

towards home humming lines akin to

these.

I'm nearer the great arm chair.

Than ever before I've been:

I'm nearer the seat of mayor.

Than ever I'll be again.

The day after the republican pri-

mary the Democrat said:

The highest number of votes polled

in yesterday's primary was 657, from

this small showing it is quite evident

that many republicans, dissatisfied with

boss rule in Seymour remained away

from the polls, in the ending to vote

THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used
to think "fe-
male diseases"
could only be
treated after "local" examinations" by physicians. Dread of such treatment
kept thousands of
modest women
silent about their suffering. The introduction of Wine of Cardui has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the
cases of menstrual disorders do
not require a physician's attention
at all. The simple, pure

Wine of Cardui

taken in the privacy of a woman's
own home insures quick relief and
speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any
disease that comes under the head
of "female troubles"—disordered
meneses, falling of the womb,
"whites," change of life. It makes
women beautiful by making them
well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at
the drug store.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, tanooga, Tenn.

W. L. ADDISON, M.D., Cary, Miss., says:
"I use Wine of Cardui extensively in my practice and find it a most excellent preparation for female troubles."

R. Van Dokkum, of Cincinnati, formerly of Seymour and who has been here, returned home this morning.

Most of the families on the second river bottoms of Hamilton township were surrounded by water yesterday.

J. H. Andrews went this forenoon to North Vernon to see his sister-in-law.
Mrs. Kate Andrews, who is much worse.

Sherman Perry and wife drove today to near Tampico to visit the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Sturgeon, and family.

George W. Cummins, of Indianapolis, went this morning to the county seat to visit his mother, Mrs. Dr. Hamlin Smith.

Fred Vagen, an employee of a Southern Indiana, who came near dying yesterday from being in the water for some time, is much better.

Miss Mary Jane Mills who has been extensively engaged in evangelistic work at Rockford and who has been the guest of Mrs. M. F. Gerrish and family went today to Louisville.

Consumption Positively Cured.

Mr. R. B. Greave, merchant of Chil-howie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies hear of but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in my chair; was in-

For the past three years have been at-

Bridgeport, Ind., have just celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

James Whitaker of Lancaster, Ky., has been acquitted of the charge of murdering his stepfather, John Grady.

Mr. Philip Anderson of Princeton, Ind., dropped dead at home just after returning from a social call. She was 60 years old.

ized a Bloodhound association for the purpose of maintaining hounds to track petty thieves.

men in Rush county, Ind., is dead of heart failure. He was a member of the legislature in 1880.

The late John Farrell of Vigo county,

a distant relative.

NORTH DAYTON FIRE.

Big Foundry Burned Through an Explosion of Gas.

Dayton, O., March 25.—The Craig-Reynolds Foundry company's plant, located in North Dayton, in the flooded district, caught fire from an explosion of acetylene gas and burned to the water's edge.

The concern manufactured heavy castings and gas machines and had on hand a quantity of calcium carbide, which generates the acetylene gas. The carbide becoming wet caused a generation of gas. Then followed the explosion and fiery display in the waste of surrounding waters that appalled the witnesses. The plant covers 30 acres, and the company is capitalized for $400,000.
The concern employs 500 men.

PECULIAR CHARACTER.

Late Zellman Dougherty's Eccentricities—Was Very Wealthy.

Elizabethtown, Ky., March 25.—Zellman Dougherty, a quaint old bachelor,
living north of here is dead aged 68.
He was a very wealthy land owner. He would never allow his hair to be cut,
and allowed it to dangle just above his waist. No persuasion would induce him to cover his barn or residence. The roof covering his home was broken through in dozens of places, and for self protection he had placed more than a dozen sugar troughs in which to catch the falling rains. His reason for this was that his father before his demise roofed the barn and house, and he proposed to leave things just as his father did.

CHICAGO BALL CLUB.

Anson Acknowledges He Holds an Option
at $150,000.

Chicago, March 25.—In some quarters it is asserted that A. C. Anson had secured control of the Chicago ball club
but Anson himself would not confirm this.

"It is true," said he, "that I have an option on the club at $150,000 and that the option yet has some time to run. I cannot say what the outcome will be."

Pigiron Combines.

Cleveland, March 25.—A fully attended meeting of manufacturers of Bessemer pigiron in the Cleveland, Mahoning and Shenango districts was held here behind closed doors yesterday
and as a result it is stated that the final steps have been taken in the formation of the pigiron trust and that it is now a fact.

Husband and Wife Drowned.

New Hagerstown, O., March 25.— While returning home from market yesterday, Samuel Haggy and wife, north of this place, were drowned while crossing the McGuffee creek. The woman's body has been found, but the husband's cannot be located.

A REDUCTION ALL ALONG THE LINE.

The success that we have met with by reducing the price of our cabinet photographs to one dollar per dozen, has determined us to continue for thirty or sixty days longer, making cabinets on glossy paper equal in style, finish and durability to those made by other photographers at a much higher price.

We have also determined to make the platinum or dead finish cabinet photos (by some called carbonettes) at $2.00 to $2.50 per dozen and guaranteed them to be equal to any made in Seymour at $3.50 to $4.00 per dozen.

Don't be deceived by the cry of cheap materials and work, for we all use the same kind of printingout paper, and tone in the same kind of gold and aristo platinum baths. Wash our prints in the same kind of water and card and burnish them in the same way. We desire to call attention to our new velvet gloss cabinets at $1.50 per dozen that by many are preferred to the higher priced platinum. We invite you to call and examine our work and then if you desire to pay higher prices for no better work, it is your privilege to do so.

SLOWLY FALLING.

THE WATERS GRADUALLY GETTING BACK TO THEIR CHANNELS.

Railroads are Pushing Repairs as Rapidly as the Water Permits.—The Ohio Rising.

The floods in central Indiana have been gradually receding since yesterday morning and the land that has been lost to view for three or four days is reappearing. Many places in the lowlands are still under water and will be for two or three days.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon White river had fallen only 2 feet and 10 inches. This is at the rate of about an inch an hour since yesterday morning. All danger of further damage is past and every effort is now being put forth to repair the losses sustained.

Yesterday evening the pile driver of the L. & N. railroad came up from Louisville and this morning it was put to work at the Rockford bridge.

The Pennsylvania work trains are pushing the repairs north of Columbus and they expect to have trains running by some time tomorrow. Today the trains of this road are run from Louisville to Seymour, thence over the B. & O. S. W. to North Vernon, thence over the Big Four by way of Greentown to Indianapolis.

The washout on the B. & O. S. W. at Medora is about 1400 feet long and will be repaired quickly when the water recedes. Yesterday evening this road began running its through trains by way of Louisville and back over the Monon to its own tracks at Mitchell beyond the washout.

The Southern Indiana lost its bridge over Indian Creek this morning. The work of repairing is being pushed rapidly and by tonight the track will be in shape as far as White river bridge. By Monday the road will be running trains again.

The Ohio river has reached flood height all along its course. It is now over the fifty-one foot mark at Cincinnati and will probably reach fifty-four or fifty-five feet.

FALSE REPRESENTATIONS.

A Missouri Woman Compels a Merchant to Pay Damages.

A lady writing from a Missouri town, says:

"A month ago, I visited one of our local merchants and asked for three packages of Diamond Dye Navy Blue for dyeing mixed goods. The merchant said he was out of the navy blue in the Diamond Dyes, and talked me into buying a dye of another make that claimed to color cotton, wool, and mixed goods with the same dye. He said that he would guarantee this dye to do as good work as I could get from the Diamond. I took it home and used it according to directions and was sadly disappointed with the results. The color was anything but navy blue, in fact my material was spoiled. I at once took the cloth to the merchant and told him his dyes were frauds. He offered to give me more of the same dye, or return the money I had paid him, but I refused both offers, as that would not replace my cloth. After I had threatened law proceedings, he thought it best to pay me for the material that his cheap dyes had spoiled. This merchant will never again have a chance to sell me any more dyes or anything else for I shall go where I can get what I want."

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

A Light Vote Polled.—The Vote in Detail.

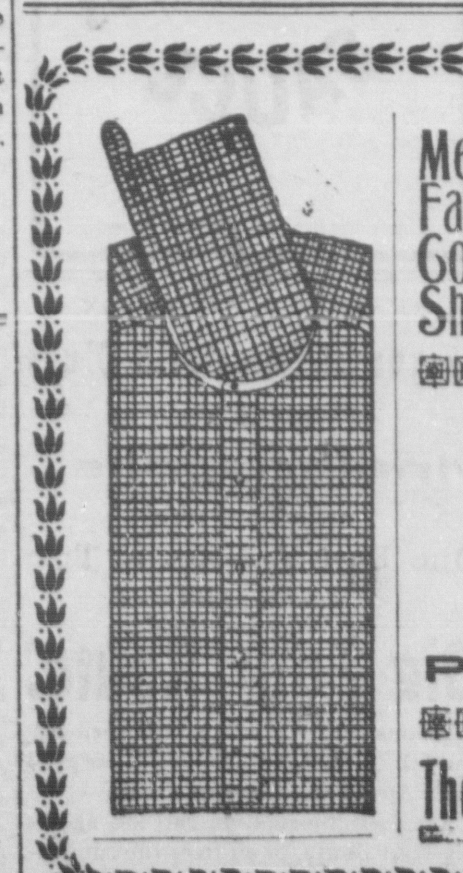

The Seymour democrats know something today that they didn't know yesterday. The democratic primary revealed some facts, while not surprising to many of them are not satisfactory. The manipulations of the bosses are very evident in the results.

A light vote was polled. A total of 508 votes were cast for mayor yesterday, against 651 votes cast for mayor at the republican primary.

Look over the vote as tabulated below and you will learn that the forecast of the REPUBLICAN yesterday afternoon was about right.

CITY COUNCIL.

A Session Attended by Some Unusual Speeches.

The city council met in regular session last night, all members being present.

Clerk McKinney read the minutes which were adopted.

Chairman Schwing reported that the committee recommended that no further action be taken in regard to the McDonald ditch. Adopted.

The same committee recommended the widening of the street from Ross street to Jeffersonville ave. Referred back to committee for further consideration.

Price reported that the special committee appointed to make an effort to have the Southern Indiana carry mail was not ready to make a final report.

DeGolyer, chairman of special committee to get propositions on sites suitable for a city building submitted four different propositions. Charles Leininger proposes to convey to the city the property now occupied by the city officers and the Democrat office for the sum of $6000, part cash and part in deferred payments. August Cordes makes a proposition to sell to the city the Laug-l property on Second street, 58 feet front for $5,000. Mrs. Matilda Springer makes a proposition to sell to the city her property at the corner of Chestnut and Bruce streets, 69 feet front, at $75 per front foot. Another proposition which Mr. DeGolyer favorably was on 47 feet of ground just south of Binder's store which could be had for $100 per front foot. In order to get the matter before the council Goodale moved to accept the proposition of Gus Cordes. After a rather exhaustive discussion, which at times was somewhat personal and exciting, the matter was laid over until next meeting.

The city treasurer's report for February showed a cash balance of $6293.33. Engineer Slagel submitted his report on the proposed ditch from the foot of seventh street to the Heitman ditch, which was referred back to him at the suggestion of the city attorney for modification.

A petition for a light at the crossing of Lynn and Oak streets was reported to light committee.

Dr. Shields submitted a resolution calling on the city attorney for an opinion on the legality of the annexation of Woodstock. Adopted.

A special committee, consisting of Goodale, Price and DeGolyer, was appointed to prepare specifications and contract for the removal of slops and garbage from the city and to get bids on removing same.

Quite a number of miscellaneous matters were brought up by different councilmen and disposed of.

COST OF SABLES.

How the Price Advances After the Skin Leaves Siberia.

Up in the great watershed dividing Siberia and Mongolia lives a peculiar race of people, half Chinese, half Tibetans. Few Europeans have ever seen them. In fact, with the exception of one or two enterprising explorers or geographical enthusiasts who have crossed the Altai range, European eyes have never gazed upon the aboriginal Syots of northern Mongolia.

Sable hunting in the Siberian mountains and northern Mongolia is confined almost exclusively to the Syots and other native races, and it would surprise a good many fur dealers in England to know the prices which are paid by the Siberian traders to these poor aborigines for the skins they collect.

The Siberian trader, knowing his market, makes periodical journeys into Mongolia. It is safe to say he does not take a kopek of money with him, but he drags behind him a well stuffed caravan loaded with tea, tobacco, gunpowder and shot, strings of beads for the women and roughly made moccasins for the men. In due course he will come across a Syot encampment.

The trader sits on his wagon and barters cheerfully. With the eye of a connoisseur and with fingers rendered deft by long practice he sees and feels the smooth, warm skins of the little animals.

This small black one—well, a two ounce packet of tobacco is enough for that; that large black one—a handful of shot and an equal quantity of gunpowder; a packet of tea for a lovely skin with a long black stripe down the center; this one, a fine skin, but a little bit hurt by the shot entering the back—well, say a string of beads for that.

In their original undressed state it is safe to say that the skins do not cost the Siberian trader much more than a few pence each on the average. As the poor sable travels farther westward, however, he gets dearer and dearer. In Tomsk one can buy a very good sable for something like 5 or 6 rubles, about 13s. In Omsk few are sold under 10 rubles—£1 is. In Moscow 100 per cent goes on. In St. Petersburg no one except the middle class or a functionary would wear a sable under £5. In Paris and London a real Siberian sable skin will fetch anything up to £30, but the imitation sables of the present day have done much to depreciate this wonderful trade.—London Mail.

Advice of the Critic.

"At your request," said the kindly critic to the young author, "I have read your book from beginning to end." "So good of you," returned the young author. "And now I want you to feel that you can speak frankly and tell me just what you think about it. I suppose you saw a great deal in it that you would change if it were left to you." "No," replied the kindly critic thoughtfully. "On the whole I think I may say there was very little." "Really!" exclaimed the young author delightedly. "Do you know I had an idea you'd tear the whole book to pieces, figuratively speaking, of course. I can't tell you how pleased I am. But of course there are some changes that you would advise relative to the publication of a second edition. What are they?"

"There's only one that's of much importance," explained the critic. "And that?" said the young author inquiringly.

"Why, that's where the hero jumps from the yacht into the ocean to save the heroine from drowning."

"Is it too thrilling? Wouldn't you have him jump after her?" inquired the young author anxiously.

"No, it's not too thrilling," was the reply, "and of course I would have him go in after her; but, you see, they're both rescued. I wouldn't have that."

"You—you wouldn't have them rescued?"

"Certainly not. Let them both drown."

"But this happens in the first chapter—almost the first thing in the book."

"Precisely. That's just when it ought to happen!"—Chicago Post.

ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other disease—CHIEF CAUSE.

Unless the urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder trouble. So the womb, like the bladder was created for one purpose, and if not doctored so much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passages is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty-four hours, a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need any medicine you should have the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, upon receipt of three two cent stamp to cover cost of postage on the bottle. Mention the REPUBLICAN and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee its punctuality of this offer.

M. R. C. PHELPS, the leading pension attorney of Belfast, N. Y., writes: "I was discharged from the army on account of ill health, and suffered from heart trouble ever since. I frequently had fainting and smothering spells. My form was bent as a bow of 50. I constantly wore an overcoat, even in summer, for fear of taking cold. I could not attend to my business. My rest was broken by severe pains about the heart, and left shoulder. Three years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, notwithstanding I had used so much patent medicine and taken drugs from doctors for years without being helped. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure restored me to health. It is truly a wonderful medicine and it affords me much pleasure to recommend this remedy to everyone."

ONLY AS AN INCIDENT

Will Mr. McKinley Treat the Maine Disaster.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROGRAMME

No Demand Will Be Made on Spain, but the Findings of the Court Will Be Cabled to Madrid—Spanish Flotilla Sails For Porto Rico, Maine's Officers to Return.

Washington, March 25.—The president frankly acknowledged yesterday that he believed the report of the board of inquiry will find that the Maine was blown up from the outside. His programme has been definitely decided. It is his purpose to treat the blowing up of the Maine as an incident. The report of the board will be sent to congress on Monday with a very brief message relating the events leading up to that point and informing congress that the facts contained in the report have been cabled to Madrid to be laid before the Spanish government by Minister Woodford. No demand will be made upon Spain, but the laying of the facts before the Spanish government will be equivalent to calling upon Spain for an explanation and such action as she may deem proper.

It is the purpose of the house leaders to refer the report and message to the committee on foreign affairs without debate and to this purpose it is believed the Democrats of the house have acquiesced, reserving the right to demand action if a report from the committee is too long delayed. Much will then depend upon Spain's response, but there are those close to the president who believe that from the time the report is sent to congress it will drop out as a factor in the situation.

The second part of the president's programme reaches the main question and involves intervention on humanitarian grounds within a week or 10 days after the report of the board goes to congress.

It will be intervention to relieve the starvation in Cuba, and upon Spain's acquiescence in or objection to this act will depend peace or war. A prominent member of the house said that in his opinion the next two weeks would determine which it would be.

Such information as exists here leads those close to the president to believe that the Spanish government will go to any length it dares to preserve peace. The queen regent is especially anxious to prevent war, and it is believed the ministry will go just as far as it can without jeopardizing its own existence and the survival of the present Spanish dynasty.

SPANISH FLOTILLA. News of Its Sailing From the Canaries Causes Warlike Preparations.

Washington, March 25.—When it became known yesterday that the Spanish flotilla had sailed from the Canaries for Porto Rico it was the signal for the most energetic warlike measures in quick succession. The dispatch to the navy department was immediately laid before the president and an earnest conference was held between him and Secretary Long and Assistant Secretary Roosevelt. The seriousness of the movement was fully considered and the president was advised that naval strategists regarded it as essential that this torpedo fleet should not be allowed to reach western waters. What, if any conclusion, was reached is not known.

Following the flotilla announcement important news followed rapidly. The first was this announcement by Secretary Long, indicating the placing of our squadron and fleet on a war footing. Admiral Sigsbee has been granted leave, very much to the regret of the navy department, and altogether on account of his health.

orders of the digestion, and all weakness of the stomach. It makes the assimilation perfect, the liver active, the blood pure and rich with the life-giving elements of the food, the nerves strong and steady, and it gives all impurities and abnormal acids from the blood. It allays inflammation and dispels pain. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It does not make corpulent people more corpulent. Unlike cod liver oil, it does not build fatty flesh, but tears down the unhealthy, half-dead tissue that constitutes corpulence, carries them away and excretes them, replacing them with the firm tissues of health. Thousands have testified to its merits. Sold at all medicine stores.

"I have been afflicted with rheumatism and kidney trouble," writes Mr. C. B. White, of Grove, Georgia, Co., Ohio. "I suffered untold pain. I was afraid I would lose my mind. At times was almost entirely helpless. There had not been a night for three years that I could rest in any position. I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I used three bottles of it and am now well of both diseases."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Dr. Pierce's sell them and these notices also. (Not a room.)

mander of the fleet at Key West. Captain Evans has been ordered to take command of the battleship Iowa.

The orders to the squadron in Hampton Roads have not yet been issued.

Although the announcement did not so state it soon became known that Commodore W. S. Schley was slated to command the "flying squadron." This announcement was recognized at once as of unusual importance at this juncture. Admiral Sigsbee has been in command of our fleet at Key West throughout the critical period of the Maine disaster. Captain Sampson has been in command of the Iowa, but more recently has been conspicuous before the public as president of the Maine court of inquiry. Captain Robley Evans is better known as "Fighting Bob."

The next important move was a determination to create a joint commission from the war and navy departments so as to bring them into harmonious action on all measures. Captain Barker, the naval aide of Secretary Long, was designated to represent the navy department in this common plan of action. The representative of the war department has not yet been named.

It will not be necessary for these officers to leave Washington, as they can best arrange a joint plan of action in conference with the bureau chiefs of the two departments here. Then at the close of day came an announcement that the navy department had succeeded in purchasing eight steam yachts and four steam tugs, presumably at and near New York, for use in the auxiliary naval fleet. The boats are about 400 tons each and in an emergency would be suitable as torpedo boats. The yachts purchased are among the fleetest along the Atlantic coast, and are said to be somewhat similar to the Mayflower recently purchased of the Ogdens-Coelet estate. This acquisition to the navy is regarded as an exceptionally valuable one at the present time, as the greatest need is felt for small craft suitable as torpedo boats and dispatch boats.

SPAIN'S RIGHT. Sending of Torpedo Boats to Porto Rico Causes Comment at Key West.

Key West, March 25.—The sailing of the Spanish torpedo flotilla for Porto Rico has caused much comment here. A high naval officer said: "Spain has a perfect right, of course, to send torpedo boats to her own colony. Still, we all know why they are coming so near to Cuba. This display of force will justify a similar movement on our part. When we do this you may be sure it will not be a movement of small proportions."

"I cannot conceive that Spain would be so suicidal in her policy as to take any step which would make war likely. Should war with Spain ensue the programme to be followed by the United States would be the blockade of Cuba. This could be done in a few days and would result in the quick capitulation of the island. There would be no necessity to land troops, as Cuba is dependent upon imports for her existence."

Rear Admiral Sigsbee will leave here shortly with his wife and daughter, but he has not decided upon the way of departure.

ORDERED HOME. Captain Sigsbee and Other Officers of the Maine.

Havana, March 25.—Orders to return home were received last evening by Captain Sigsbee and the other officers of the Maine now here and all will go north except Lieutenant Commander Wainwright, who will remain in charge of the wrecking operations, will have his quarters on the Fern, Commander Cowles commanding. Captain Sigsbee and his brother officers expect to leave for the north by the steamer Olivette on Saturday. When the officers learned of the naval orders bulletined at Washington there was much enthusiasm expressed among them over the orders affecting Captain Sampson and Captain Evans, while every one expresses the hope that Captain Sigsbee will be given an important command.

COMING TO FIGHT US. That is What Senator Mason Thinks About the Spanish Flotilla.

Washington, March 25.—Senator Mason was at the navy department yesterday when the news of the sailing of the Spanish Flotilla arrived. When asked what he thought of this action by Spain, he said:

"It means that they are coming to this side either to fight the insurgents or to fight us. The insurgents are on the mountains and the torpedo boats will hardly be used to fight them, unless they succeed in putting wings on them. That seems to narrow down the purpose of their coming. I do not know what the naval authorities intend to do about this move, but if I had my way that torpedo flotilla would turn back if it took every ship in United States navy to stop them."

The Algonquin and Onondaga. Cleveland, March 24.—The Globe ship building company, has received an inquiry from navy officials, asking when the two revenue cutters being built for the government at the Globe yard would be completed, and urging haste. A reply was made that they would be ready for service in four weeks. An extra force of men will be put to work and it is possible the boats may be completed in less time than that. The vessels in question are the Algonquin and the Onondaga.

Foreign Diver's View. London, March 22.—The Vienna correspondent of The Daily Chronicle says: "Baumann, a diver, engaged by the United States to examine the wreck of the Maine, has written to his parents in Dresden, stating that the vessel was undoubtedly exploded by the Spaniards by means of a submarine mine, in proof of which he points out that the gunpowder, dynamite and other explosives in the wreckage were found on the wreck quite intact."

REPORT IS RECEIVED

President McKinley Now Has the Momentous Document.

ARRIVED ON TIME LAST NIGHT.

Great Crowds at the Station in Washington to Receive Lieutenant Marix and His Guard—Hurried Into Carriages and Driven to the Ebbitt. Correspondents Baffled.

Washington, March 25.—The report of the naval board of inquiry into the Maine disaster arrived in Washington at 9:35 last night, and this morning Lieutenant Commander Marix delivered the momentous document into the hands of Secretary of the Navy Long. Mr. Long, after a brief conference with the commander, called a carriage and was hastily driven with a guard to the white house, where he turned the report over to the president.

When the train carrying the four naval officers who carried the report from Key West to this city arrived they were hustled at once into a carriage by an attaché of the navy department and driven to the Ebbitt House, where they tried to catch a little much needed sleep and at the same time withstand the crowd of newspaper men who thronged the lobby in hopes of some stray bit of information which had escaped the scrutiny of numerous correspondents along the route.

The party consisted of Lieutenant Commander Marix, Lieutenant John Hood, Lieut. Carl Jungen, Passed Assistant Engineer Bowers, A. T. Marix, a nephew of the judge advocate and ship carpenter Helms, of the Maines ill-fated crew. There was an immense crowd waiting at the depot when the train pulled in. The naval contingent was in the last sleeper of the train and deftly avoided the crush of citizens by alighting at the upper end of the platform and going out across tracks. All were thoroughly tired and Commander Marix was asleep in the corner of the seat when the train pulled in and was gently shaken into sensibility by his companions who were on guard.

The party was met at the steps of the car by Lieutenant Ward of the navy department, who was the sole representative of Secretary Long. He informed Commander Marix that the secretary could not receive the report last night and gathering the tired travelers under his protecting wing made for the hack stands through the rapidly thickening crowd which, balked of its prey at the gate, had swarmed out over the pavement to get a glimpse at the outside of the much heralded report. Lieutenant Hood, as the most muscular member of the party, carried the bulky document in a white canvas bag slung under his arm. It must have weighed 10 or 20 pounds without its carrying case and portended endless reams of complicated testimony to be digested by the administration before the next step in the progress of the Maine incident can be taken.

That the whole party carrying the report was armed was demonstrated in a rather theatrical way just as they were about to get into the carriage. The crowd closed around the party and jostled them considerably. Some one ran against the end of the mysterious canvas bag in which the report was concealed. Quick as a flash Lieutenant Hood's hand went back to his hip and Lieutenant Jungen laid his hand on the butt of a revolver that was sticking from his side pocket. The movements were sufficient to prevent further jostling.

On being driven to the Ebbitt house the whole party retired, first having ordered some light refreshments to their rooms. It was not long until the news of their arrival spread and the lobby was filled with a curious crowd of idlers, while the negro bell boys worked over time carrying up cards from the various correspondents in search of an interview. Young Marix was deputed as a sort of press committee and met all inquirers with the stereotyped reply of "I don't know," to every question.

OHIO LEGISLATURE. Two Cent Fare Bills Pass the House and Senate.

Columbus, O., March 25.—Both the house and senate last evening passed 2-cent fare bills in a modified form. They provided that all railroads shall sell 500 and 1,000 mile tickets that may be used by any member of a family or firm or its employees. There will now be a contest as to which bill shall be made a law.

OUT OF POLITICS. Tom Watson Declines the Populist Nomination For Governor.

Atlanta, March 25.—Hon. Thomas B. Watson, who was nominated for governor one week ago by the Populists, is out in an open letter declining to accept the honor. After saying he could not be elected no matter how the ballots went, he announced that he is out of politics for good.

Pensions Granted. Washington, March 25.—Pensions have been granted the following Indians: Original—Joseph Goldsmith, Fortville, Mo.; Joel R. Miller, National Military Home, Grant, Mo.; Jacob Schneider, Gas City, Mo. Restoration and Increase—Charles A. Fleming, Oakville, Mo. to $14. Reissner and Increase—George A. Nichols, Hebron, Mo. to $12; Alfred T. Knight, Hartford City, Mo. to $10. Original Widows, Etc.—Nancy A. Updegraff, West Newton, Mo.; Mary V. Trower, Indianapolis, Mo.; Joanna Grayville, Grayville, Mo.; Elizabeth Holbrook, Grayfordsville, Mo.

CEASE WABBLING. London Graphic's Criticism on Cuban Situation.

London, March 25.—The Daily Graphic says editorially: "We think it time that Washington ceases wabbling. Weeks ago it was said that the starting of the Spanish torpedo flotilla for the West Indies would compel America to declare war. Today the flotilla is steaming straight for Porto Rico. Meanwhile acute senators in Washington and over-clever journalists in New York are planning ingenious campaigns to fix the odium of declaring war on Spain."

"Surely this is unworthy of the American people. Two clear lines of policy are before President McKinley: Either to co-operate with the Sagasta cabinet in making Cuban home rule a reality or to give Spain peremptory notice to quit.

"To avoid both courses is to turn the terrible Maine disaster into a sort of gossamer red herring. If President McKinley does not mean war, let him say so, and the horrors in Cuba will soon be mitigated."

PRAIRIE SCHOONERS. Emigrants to Minnesota and North Dakota Reviving That Method of Travel.

St. Paul, March 25.—New settlers are reviving the old prairie schooner, and railroad land officials in this city have the names of 300 families, aggregating 1,200 people, who propose this spring to adopt that method of reaching Minnesota and the Dakotas from the older states. Many of them are already on the road. The present movement of settlers is the heaviest for a long time. Over 1,000 people passed through this city yesterday and the day before en route to farms in Minnesota and the Dakotas, and will settle along the line of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern. The largest body of new settlers will be the Dunkards, several thousand of whom expect to join their brethren in North Dakota this year.

FLOOD NEWS. Loss of Life and Damage to Property in the Ohio Valley.

Cincinnati, March 25.—Reports from northern West Virginia at the sources of the Monongahela bring news of heavy rains and a rapidly rising river. This is an assurance that the Ohio will have a protracted high stage of water.

Laboring towns in Ohio that have suffered inundation and damage are finding relief by the recession of the waters. Loss of life is reported at Hamilton, O. where the great Miami swept away two cottages and drowned six inmates, namely: Mrs. Charles Whitman and her three small children and Mr. and Mrs. Springman. The story of loss of life by the railroad wreck near Columbus, Ind., not only lacks confirmation but is positively denied.

Five Drowned at Zanesville. Zanesville, O., March 25.—Fifteen hundred families homeless, nearly $2,000,000 worth of property destroyed and the loss of five lives by drowning are reported.

CONGRATULATED. Officers of the N. W. C. T. U. Telegraph Miss Bradley.

Chicago, March 25.—Miss Christine Bradley, sponsor for the battleship Kentucky, launched at Newport News, was congratulated by telegraph on her action in using water to christen the man-of-war by the officers of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The following telegram was sent from headquarters in this city: "Congratulations from the National W. C. T. U. A half million white ribbons bless your heroism."

GRANTING PARDONS. Acting Governor Worthington Makes Three Convicts Happy.

Frankfort, Ky., March 25.—Acting Governor Worthington granted three pardons yesterday. The recipients of executive clemency were John O. Carter, a Graves county murderer, who has served nine years on a life sentence; George M. Huffman, of Garrard county serving eight years for attempted criminal assault; and Talbot Davis, of Pulaski, serving five years for manslaughter. The pardon bill will probably continue in operation through the week.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION. Fourteen Hundred Pounds of the Explosive Fired by Lightning.

Youngstown, O., March 25.—Fourteen hundred pounds of dynamite stored in a warehouse at Hillsville, 12 miles east of here, were struck by lightning and caused a terrific explosion. Not a vestige of the building is left and many small cottages near by were badly shattered. Five persons, Italians, were more or less seriously injured. The force of the explosion threw many persons out of bed.

Weather. Indiana and Ohio—Fair and warmer.

WIRE WHISPERS. The Michigan legislature has resolved in favor of intervention in Cuba by the government.

At a meeting in Boston to raise funds for a monument to the victims of the Maine disaster, $5,000 was netted. There were 1,230 deaths from the plague during the past week at Bombay. Four Europeans were among the victims. The executive committee of the American Bankers' association has decided to hold the next convention at Denver. The statement of the condition of the United States treasury shows: Available cash balances, $234,710,922; gold reserve, $171,867,701.

The Canadian Pacific railroad's earnings for the week ending March 21 were $463,000, an increase over same period last year of $138,000. Black Smith, who had a glove contest with Henry Braun at Trenton, N. J., in which the latter was killed, has been held without bail. The coroner says Braun came to his death from a blow or a fall.

GAS WASTE DECISION

Judge Baker Holds the Federal Court Has No Jurisdiction.

EX-COUNTY OFFICERS SUED.

Saloonkeeper Acquitted by a Jury of the Charge of Murder—Only One Out of a Hundred—Pleaded Guilty to Embellishment—Took Nitric Acid. Wagon Works Burned.

Indianapolis, March 25.—Judge Baker rendered a decision late yesterday which makes it impossible for penalties for wasting gas to be collected in the federal court. The decision was entered in two cases in which the state is plaintiff and the Allegheny Oil company defendant. The company was sued by the state for allowing gas to escape from two wells in Delaware county in the course of boring for oil. The company carried the cases to the federal court and Attorney General Ketcham promptly moved to remand. Judge Baker in sustaining the motion, held that the state of Indiana is not a citizen of Indiana, and therefore that the rule of diverse citizenship of the parties, under which jurisdiction was asserted, did not obtain.

Lafayette, Ind., March 25.—The Schoof-McClelland murder case ended yesterday with a verdict of acquittal, and the defendant Robert Schoof received the congratulations of friends. James McClelland's lifeless body was found in the rear of Schoof's saloon February 16, death having resulted from a blow which broke the neck. Schoof was indicted for the crime, with three others as accessories. Owing to the verdict of not guilty in Schoof's case the cases against the others have been dismissed.

Pleaded Guilty to Embellishment. Greenfield, Ind., March 25.—Before Judge Offutt, yesterday, Lee Link, former agent of the Singer Sewing Machine company, pleaded guilty to embellishment, and was sentenced to the reformatory. It was charged that he appropriated $258 of the company's money.

Hogs and Sheep Bitten by a Mad Dog. Seeleyville, Ind., March 25.—A mad dog, belonging to Mrs. McBride, near here, after biting a valuable horse belonging to her, went to the farm of John L. Miller and bit 11 head of sheep and 11 head of hogs. The dog was killed and the bitten stock quarantined.

Wagon Works Burned. Bryant, Ind., March 25.—The wagon works here owned by Clayton Williams & Co., burned to the ground. The loss is $5,000, with $1,000 insurance. The fire destroyed all telephone connection. It is supposed to have been accidental.

THE KEARSAGE. Twin Sister of the Battleship Kentucky Launched.

Newport News, March 25.—The Kearsage, the twin sister of the battleship Kentucky, was successfully launched yesterday. Mrs. Winslow, wife of Lieutenant Commander Winslow, stood at the prow with a bottle of wine in her hand and, just as the ship touched the water, she broke the bottle and exclaimed: "I christen thee Kearsage."

Senate and House. Washington, March 25.—Senator Thurston (Neb.) whose wife died while visiting Cuba last week, addressed the senate yesterday on the Cuban situation, beginning his remarks by saying he made the speech "by command of one whose lips were silent." The senator said the pictures of suffering on the island by correspondents had not been overdrawn, but were facts. At the conclusion of the speech the senator received an ovation. The house debated the naval appropriation bill and decided to take a vote this afternoon.

Indiana Postmasters. Washington, March 25.—Indiana postmasters were appointed yesterday as follows: Farmington, Albert N. Earnst; Noxide, Zora Dorsey; Strawtown, Alfred D. Couder.

Why Doesn't the Boiler Burst? What a tremendous force is struggling to tear a boiler to atoms! Take, for example, a horizontal tubular boiler of ordinary proportions, 60 inches in diameter by 16 feet long, containing eighty-three 1 inch tubes. Such a boiler has a surface area of 40,719 square inches.

Suppose this boiler is operated with a working pressure of 100 pounds per square inch, which is not at all uncommon. The boiler therefore sustains a total pressure of 4,071,600 pounds, or more than 2,035 tons.

Do we realize what this means? The boiler has resting upon it the equivalent of a column of granite 10 feet square and 254.5 feet high, or to put it another way, the boiler is holding up the equivalent weight of 28,371 persons, each weighing 182 pounds.

The best authorities agree that the ordinary draft horse, working eight hours a day, exerts an average force during that time of 120 pounds.

Now, this force acting to disrupt the boiler longitudinally is 220,200 pounds, so that to produce an equivalent stress it would be necessary to hitch up to the ends of the boiler two teams of 1,889 horses, altogether.—Strand Magazine.

California is a Winter Resort.

Every year California becomes more

popular for those who desire to escape

the rigors of the northern and eastern

winters, and it is a peculiar fact that those who have visited this land of

sunshine, fruit and flowers return annually to the Golden state. We in the east cannot realize the delights of gathering flowers during the winter months. Did you ever see a field of calla lilies in bloom? Yet is not an uncommon sight in California. Undoubtedly the most delightful route at

this season of year to California is via

the Southern Pacific Company's Sunset

Route, and particular attention is called

to the sunset limited annex service

now operated between the Crescent City

and the Golden Gate leaving New

Orleans 8:40 p. m. every Tuesday and

Saturday. Via this route one enters

California at its most south eastern

corner, passes through a valley on

their snowy peaks. Once through this

gateway the bounties of California are

before you; the thriving farms with

blossoming orchards, meadows decked

with scarlet poppies greet the eye in

POLITICAL BREVITIES.

The democrat primary went through

yesterday according to program and the

slate was named as indicated in the

from the beginning. Mr. Bauer, how-

ever, came very near winning in spite

of the organized opposition, and except

for the personal opposition of a few of

the ring leaders in the first ward,

would have captured the nomination.

Col. Thurston made a gallant fight

but a hopeless one, as he realized that

the peewee politicians were against

him. He was educated and experienced

in the law before these would-be lead-

ers were born, and no man goes down

before the machine more respected and

with a more loyal personal following

than he.

It was pretty generally believed that

the mature judgment of Dennis Hanlon

and his earnest interest in the upbuild-

ing of the third ward would insure his

an organ and could not afford to see his

personal friend, Charley, go down: so

the word was passed around and Den-

was slaughtered. Apparently the democratic machine cares little for the citizens living beyond the two railroads in

the third ward. Jim DeGolyer will

look well to their interest in the future

as he has in the past.

There is a very evident regret this

morning among thoughtful democrats

at the result of the contest for marshal.

Mr. Bruning, Mr. Railing and Mr. Riehl

each had a very creditable following of

the best citizenship, but in order to

cater to a certain element, the wise

men in charge set them aside. A few

men can make programs and slates,

but they cannot sit in their soft places

and carry the elections.

Claude Wilson was not treated with

common civility.

George Thompson is slated for street

commissioner. His influence is worth

having in city politics.

Munden's influence is breeding great

politicians rather than great lawyers.

Mr. Arbuckle is his cousin and got his

start there and flocked to himself. Mr.

Staples spent all of his preparatory days

there and was weaned in time to enter

the city campaign. Mr. Wesner, the

man of many titles, is still under tut-

elage there, and what may be developed

out of him, time only can tell. Mr.

Munden is still chasing the nomination

Charles Burkart, who had the advantage of his opponent by having the sup-

port of the candidate for mayor, is

glorifying today because his name is not

"Dennis." By the way Charley does

not claim to be a candidate for council,

but for Alderman in the Third district.

Thus he is putting on "city airs" and

may be expected to have his head

measured for a silk hat before the can-

vas proceeds much farther.

James T. Arbuckle was the most

good-natured man on the grounds yesterday. His step was light, his smile

filled with visions of a great future. He

did not borrow trouble, but patted everybody on the back, and especially

Charley Burkart. He has had his own

way politically, and only today does he

realize what little glory there is in all

that. He kept down all opposing can-

didates and kept up a show of courage

until all the returns were in and the

total vote was shown to be

small as to foretell his doom to the

election, then he was seen sauntering

towards home humming lines akin to

these.

I'm nearer the great arm chair,
Than ever before I've been;
I'm nearer the seat of mayor,
Than ever I'll be again.

The day after the republican pri-

mary the Democrat said:

The highest number of votes polled

yesterday's primary was 657, from

this small showing it is quite evident

that many republicans, dissatisfied with

boss rule in Seymour remained away

from the polls, in the ending to vote

the democratic.

How does that apply to yesterday's vote?

The light vote yesterday augurs

badly for machine politics in Seymour.

—Democrat, March 9.

What does the light vote yesterday

"augur?"

James O. Staples has succeeded in winning the first-round against the venerable Judge Thurston. But he will have to have more beard on his face before he is able to defeat our present worthy city Judge Absalom H

Hoover. James is a clever young man,

but he will have to defer his judicial

aspirations until a more propitious season.

THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local" examinations by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of women silent about their suffering. The introduction of

Wine of Cardui has now demon-

cases of menstrual disorders do

not require a physician's attention

at all. The simple, pure

Wine of Cardui

taken in the privacy of a woman's

own home insures quick relief and

speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any

disease that comes under the head

of "female troubles"—disordered

menstruation, falling of the womb,

"whites," change of life. It makes

women beautiful by making them

well. It keeps them young by

keeping them healthy. $1.00 at

SLOWLY FALLING.

THE WATERS GRADUALLY GETTING BACK TO THEIR CHANNELS.

Railroads are Pushing Repairs as Rapidly as the Water Permits.—The Ohio Rising.

The floods in central Indiana have been gradually receding since yesterday morning and the land that has been lost to view for three or four days is re-appearing. Many places in the lowlands are still under water and will be for two or three days.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon White river had fallen only 2 feet and 10 inches. This is at the rate of about an inch an hour since yesterday morning.
All danger of further damage is past and every effort is now being put forth to repair the losses sustained.

Yesterday evening the pile driver of the L. & N. railroad came up from Louisville and this morning it was put to work at the Rockford bridge.

The Pennsylvania work trains are pushing the repairs north of Columbus and they expect to have trains running by some time tomorrow. Today the trains of this road are run from Louisville to Seymour, thence over the B. & O. S. W. to North Vernon, thence over the Big Four by way of Greenburg to Indianapolis.

The washout on the B. & O. S. W. at Medora is about 1400 feet long and will be repaired quickly when the water recedes. Yesterday evening this road began running its through trains by way of Louisville and back over the Monon to its own tracks at Mitchell beyond the washout.

The Southern Indiana lost its bridge over Indian Creek this morning. The work of repairing is being pushed rapidly and by tonight the track will be in shape as far as White river bridge. By Monday the road will be running trains again.

The Ohio river has reached flood height all along its course. It is now over the fifty-one foot mark at Cincinnati and will probably reach fifty-four or fifty-five feet.

FALSE REPRESENTATIONS.

A Missouri Woman Compels a Merchant to Pay Damages.

A lady writing from a Missouri town,
says:

"A month ago, I visited one of our local merchants and asked for three packages of Diamond Dye Navy Blue
for dyeing mixed goods. The merchant said he was out of the navy blue in the Diamond Dyes, and talked me into buying a dye of another make that claimed to color cotton, wool, and mixed goods with the same dye. He said that he would guarantee this dye to do as good work as I could get from the Diamond. I took it home and used it according to directions and was sadly disappointed with the results. The color was anything but navy blue, in fact my material was spoiled. I at once took the cloth to the merchant and told him his dyes were frauds. He offered to give me more of the same dye, or return the money I had paid him, but I refused both offers, as that would not replace my cloth. After I had threatened law proceedings, he thought it best to pay me for the material that his cheap dyes had spoiled.
This merchant will never again have a chance to sell me any more dyes or anything else for I shall go where I can get what I want."

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

A Light Vote Polled.—The Vote in Detail.

The Seymour democrats know somethings today that they didn't know yesterday. The democratic primary revealed some facts, while not surprising to many of them are not satisfactory. The manipulations of the bosses are very evident in the results.

A light vote was polled. A total of 508 votes were cast for mayor yesterday, against 651 votes cast for mayor at
the republican primary.

Look over the vote as tabulated below and you will learn that the forecast of the REPUBLICAN yesterday afternoon was about right.

CITY COUNCIL.

A Session Attended by Some Unusual Speeches.

The city council met in regular session last night, all members being present.

Clerk McKinney read the minutes
which were adopted.

Chairman Schwing reported that the committee recommended that no further action be taken in regard to the Mc-Donald ditch. Adopted.

The same committee recommended
the widening of the street from Ross street to Jeffersonville ave. Referred back to committee for further consideration.

Price reported that the special committee appointed to make an effort to have the Southern Indiana carry mail
was not ready to make a final report.

Dr. Golyer, chairman of special committee to get propositions on sites suitable for a city building submitted four different propositions. Charles Leininger proposes to convey to the city
the property now occupied by the city officers and the Democrat office for the sum of $6000, part cash and part in deferred payments. August Cordes makes a proposition to sell to the city
the Laugel property on Second street, 58 feet front for $5,000. Mrs. Matilda Springer makes a proposition to sell to the city her property at the corner of Chestnut and Bruce streets, 69 feet front, at $75 per front foot. Another proposition which Mr. DeGolyer gav-orally was on 47 feet of ground just south of Binder's store which could be had for $100 per front foot. In order to get the matter before the council Goodale moved to accept the proposition of Gus Cordes. After a rather exhaustive discussion, which at times was somewhat personal and exciting, the matter was laid over until next meeting.

The city treasurer's report for February showed a cash balance of $6293.33.

Engineer Slagel submitted his report on the proposed ditch from the foot of seventh street to the Heitman ditch, which was referred back to him at the suggestion of the city attorney for modification.

A petition for a light at the crossing of Lynn and Oak streets was reported to light committee.

Dr. Shields submitted a resolution calling on the city attorney for an opinion on the legality of the annexation of Woodstock. Adopted.

A special committee, consisting of Goodale, Price and DeGolyer, was appointed to prepare specifications and contract for the removal of slops and garbage from the city and to get bids on removing same.

Quite a number of miscellaneous matters were brought up by different councilmen and disposed of.

COST OF SABLES.

How the Price Advances After the Sable Leaves Siberia.

Up in the great watershed dividing Siberia and Mongolia lives a peculiar race of people, half Chinese, half Tibetans. Few Europeans have ever seen them. In fact, with the exception of one or two enterprising explorers or geographical enthusiasts who have crossed the Altai range, European eyes have never gazed upon the aboriginal Syots of northern Mongolia.

Sable hunting in the Siberian mountains and northern Mongolia is confined almost exclusively to the Syots and other native races, and it would surprise a good many fur dealers in England to know the prices which are paid by the Siberian traders to these poor aborigines for the skins they collect.

The Siberian trader, knowing his market, makes periodical journeys into Mongolia. It is safe to say he does not take a kopek of money with him, but he drags behind him a well stuffed caravan loaded with tea, tobacco, gunpowder and shot, strings of beads for the women and roughly made moccasins for the men. In due course he will come across a Syot encampment.

The trader sits on his wagon and barter cheerfully. With the eye of a connoisseur and with fingers rendered deft by long practice he sees and feels the smooth, warm skins of the little animals.

This small black one—well, a two ounce packet of tobacco is enough for that; that large black one—a handful of shot and an equal quantity of gunpowder; a packet of tea for a lovely skin with a long black stripe down the center; this one, a fine skin, but a little bit hurt by the shot entering the back—well, say a string of beads for that.

In their original undressed state it is safe to say that the skins do not cost the Siberian trader much more than a few pence each on the average. As the poor sable travels farther westward, however, he gets dearer and dearer. In Tomsk one can buy a very good sable for something like 5 or 6 rubles, about 13s. In Omsk few are sold under 10 rubles—£1 is. In Moscow 100 per cent goes on. In St. Petersburg no one except the middle class or a functionary would wear a sable under £5. In Paris and London a real Siberian sable skin will fetch anything up to £20, but the imitation sables of the present day have done much to depreciate this wonderful trade.—London Mail.

Advice of the Critic. "At your request," said the kindly critic to the young author, "I have read your book from beginning to end."

"So good of you," returned the young author. "And now I want you to feel that you can speak frankly and tell me just what you think about it. I suppose you saw a great deal in it that you would change if it were left to you."

"No," replied the kindly critic thoughtfully. "On the whole I think I play say there was very little."

"Really!" exclaimed the young author delightedly. "Do you know I had an idea you'd tear the whole book to pieces, figuratively speaking, of course. I can't tell you how pleased I am. But of course there are some changes that you would advise relative to the publication of a second edition. What are they?"

"There's only one that's of much importance," explained the critic.

"And that?" said the young author inquiringly.

"Why, that's where the hero jumps from the yacht into the ocean to save the heroine from drowning."

"Is it too thrilling?" Wouldn't you have him jump after her?" inquired the young author anxiously.

"You—you wouldn't have them rescued?"

"Certainly not. Let them both drown."

"But this happens in the first chapter—almost the first thing in the book."

"Precisely. That's just when it ought to happen!"—Chicago Post.

The cheeks become pale from fear because the mental emotion diminishes the action of the heart and lungs and so impedes the circulation.

ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other disease.

CHIEF CAUSE. Unheated urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty-four hours, a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need any medicine you should have the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, upon receipt of three two cent stamp to cover cost of postage on the bottle. Mention the Bz-PUBLICAN and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee its pinpinnities of this offer.
